

ANNY 2020 Election Candidate Bio and Statement of Interest

Nicole Juersivich, Ph.D.

Director of Academic Assessment
Nazareth College

Personal Bio

Nicole Juersivich is an Associate Professor in the math department at Nazareth College where she teaches both math and math education courses. Nicole took on the role of Director of Academic Assessment in January 2019. She loves problem solving, teaching, and learning.

Statement of Interest

I am interested in this position for two reasons:

1. I want to collaborate with others who want to advance the quality of assessment in higher education so that students are obtaining the quality experiences and learning that we want them to,
2. I want to broaden my understanding of and best practices in assessment by interacting with other faculty, staff, and administrators while contributing to the operation of network.
