Dr. W. Allen Richman

Dr. W. Allen Richman is Senior Director for Research at Middle States Commissions on Higher Education. Prior to coming to work for the commission Dr. Richman worked as Faculty, Staff, and Administrator at a range of institutions. Dr. Richman's work has focused on learning outcomes assessment, institutional effectiveness, strategic planning, and data systems design to improve processes across an institution. Dr. Richman's published work has been included in NILOA's Occasional Papers, Peer Review, Journal of Special Education Technology, and others. Dr. Richman is a frequent presenter and consultant on Assessment and Institutional Effectiveness, focused on helping institution develop efficient and meaningful methods of measurement that lead to student success. Dr. Richman earned his B.A. in English from the University of Texas at Austin and his M.A. and Ph.D. in Developmental Psychology from the University of Kansas.